Re: Choir Members:

Mrs. A. T. Jordan,
97 Easton Avenue,
New Brunswick, N.J.

I interviewed Mrs. Jordan at her home and she informed me that she had been active in St. John's Church and choir for a number of years. During that time she was working side by side with Rev. Hall, Mrs. Mills and others for the interests of the Church and to promote peace and harmony among the members of both the church and choir.

That nothing had ever transpired which in any way would tend to indicate any intimacy between Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills and further she had never heard the least suggestion of it. In fact, she is still reluctant to believe that there was anything improper in their relations.

She spoke considerably about Rev. Hall and all of his fine qualities and went to greater lengths in her praise of Mrs. Hall.

Respectfully submitted:
